

As a resident of NJ, I support our "do not call" list, and hope that the FCC continues to see that people do not want to be called if they take the time to sign up for such a program.